Defendants,

INTRODUCTION

1. This action arises out of Defendants’ violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”) whereby Plaintiff discovered inaccurate information reporting on Plaintiff’s consumer credit report, disputed that inaccurate information, and Defendants willfully or negligently refused to correct the inaccurate information on Plaintiff’s consumer credit report, damaging Plaintiff.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is, and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a resident of Onondaga County New York.

3. At all times pertinent hereto, Plaintiff was a “consumer” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. §1681a(c).

4. Defendant, The Bank of Missouri, (hereinafter “TBOM”) is a corporation operating under the laws of the State of New York and is a financial institution and a furnisher of consumer credit information to consumer reporting agencies.

5. At all times pertinent hereto, TBOM was a “person” as that term is defined in 15 U.S.C. §1681a(b) and also a “furnisher” of credit information as that term is described in 15 U.S.C. §1681s-2 et seq.

6. Defendant, Experian Information Solutions, Inc., (“Experian”) is a credit reporting agency, licensed to do business in New York.

7. Defendant, Equifax Information Services, LLC, (“Equifax”) is a credit reporting agency, licensed to do business in New York.

8. Defendant, TransUnion, LLC, (“Transunion”) is a credit reporting agency, licensed to do business in New York.

9. Defendant Experian, Equifax, and Transunion are, and at all times relevant hereto were, regularly doing business in the State of New York.

12. At all times pertinent hereto, Defendant Experian, Equifax, and Transunion were a “person” and “consumer reporting agency” as those terms are defined by 15 U.S.C. §1681a(b) and (f).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. That the Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681p, the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”).

14. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) and as the Plaintiff resides in and the injury occurred in Onondaga County, New York and Defendants do business in New York.

15. Personal jurisdiction exists over Defendants as Plaintiff resides in New York, Defendants have the necessary minimum contacts with the state of New York, and this suit arises out of specific conduct with Plaintiff in New York.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff is a consumer who is the victim of inaccurate reporting by Defendants TBOM, Experian, Equifax, and Transunion (collectively, “Defendants”), and has suffered particularized and concrete harm.

17. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion are three of the largest consumer reporting agencies (“CRAs”) as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1681a(f).

18. The CRAs’ primary business is the sale of consumer reports (commonly referred to as “credit reports”) to third parties and consumers.

19. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion each have a duty, under the FCRA, to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the consumer reports they sell meet the standard of “maximum possible accuracy.” 15 U.S.C. §1681e(b).

20. In August 2024 Plaintiff discovered a TBOM account, account number beginning 5427-8400, (the “Account”) being reported in error – specifically the Account is reporting with a balance past due after the Account was settled and paid in full by Plaintiff.

21. In December 2023, Plaintiff entered into a settlement agreement for the payoff of the Account with Fortiva.

22. Plaintiff made all the required payments per the terms of the settlement agreement and fully satisfied Plaintiff’s obligation on the Account.

23. Despite receiving the full benefit of settlement on the Account, TBOM continues to report a balance past due on Plaintiff’s consumer credit reports.

24. The false information regarding the Account appearing on Plaintiff’s consumer reports harms the Plaintiff because it does not accurately depict Plaintiff’s credit history and creditworthiness.

PLAINTIFF'S WRITTEN DISPUTE

25. In August 2024 Plaintiff sent a written dispute to Experian ("Experian Dispute"), disputing the inaccurate information regarding the Account reporting on Plaintiff's Experian consumer report.

27. In August 2024 Plaintiff sent a written dispute to Transunion ("Transunion Dispute"), disputing the inaccurate information regarding the Account reporting on Plaintiff's Transunion consumer report.

29. Upon information and belief, Experian, Equifax, and Transunion forwarded Plaintiff's Written Disputes to Defendant TBOM.

30. Upon information and belief, TBOM received notification of Plaintiff's Written Disputes from Experian, Equifax, and Transunion.

31. TBOM did not conduct an investigation, contact Plaintiff, contact third-parties, or review underlying Account information with respect to the disputed information and the accuracy of the Account.

32. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion did not conduct an investigation, contact Plaintiff, contact third-parties, or review underlying account information with respect to the disputed information and the accuracy of the Account.

33. Upon information and belief, TBOM failed to instruct Experian, Equifax, and Transunion to remove the false information regarding the Account reporting on Plaintiff's consumer report.

34. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion each employed an investigation process that was not reasonable and did not remove the false information regarding the Account identified in Plaintiff's Written Disputes.

35. At no point after receiving the Written Disputes did TBOM and/or Experian, Equifax, and Transunion communicate with Plaintiff to determine the veracity and extent of Plaintiff's Written Disputes.

36. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion relied on its own judgment and the information provided to them by TBOM rather than grant credence to the information provided by Plaintiff.
